Highlights... French Quarter, New Orleans School of Cooking, Swamp Tour, Court of Two Sisters

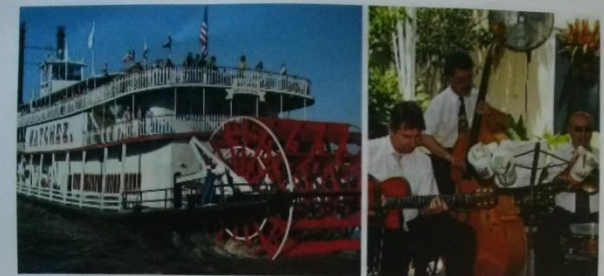

Day 1: Monday, September 28, 2015
New Orleans, Louisiana - Tour Begins
Step into a cultural melting pot in the "Jazz Capital of the World" - New Orleans! This soulful city abounds with rich history, mouth-watering Cajun and Creole cuisine, and an incomparable soundtrack.

Day 2: Tuesday, September 29, 2015
French Quarter Get to know the city's famous French Quarter on a walking tour featuring the majestic St. Louis Cathedral, one of the city's most recognizable landmarks. Continue on to the bustling French Marketplace where you'll explore Pirates Alley, the Cabildo, the Presbytere and the Pontalba. Stop to taste a true New Orleans favorite - beignets at Café Du Monde. Tonight, roll up your sleeves and prepare to discover how to cook New Orleans-style! During a unique cooking demonstration at the New Orleans School of Cooking your chef will indulge you in everything that Louisiana cuisine has to offer. Following dinner, discover why New Orleans is known as the "Birthplace of Jazz" when you take in a spirited jazz revue at Irvin Mayfield's Jazz Playhouse. (B, D)

Day 3: Wednesday, September 30, 2015
French Quarter Set out on a drive along New Orleans' historic Esplanade Avenue. Then, journey through Louisiana's swamp on a cruise* narrated by your captain. Learn about the history and ecology of this fascinating ecosystem while keeping an eye out for wildlife including bald eagles, herons, turtles and alligators! You'll also see houses of the local Cajuns who have made their homes here in the bayous, which are accessible only by boat. Return to New Orleans and spend the remainder of the afternoon at leisure to discover this great city your way. (B)

Day 4: Thursday, October 1, 2015
New Orleans This morning, enjoy a panoramic tour of New Orleans with a local guide. Begin along historic Esplanade Avenue. See St. Louis Cemetery #3 which opened in 1854 and holds some of the most elaborate crypts found in the city's cemeteries.

Then, relax during a drive along the shoreline of Lake Pontchartrain. This romantic road eventually leads to St. Charles Avenue, whisking you past gorgeous mansions as well as Tulane and Loyola, two world-famous universities. Return to the French Quarter this afternoon. Tonight, enjoy an elegant dinner at the Court of Two Sisters, one of New Orleans' most famous restaurants. (B, D)

Day 5: Friday, October 2, 2015

Experience It! The French Quarter

Nestled along the shore of the legendary Mississippi River sits New Orleans' French Quarter. This historic cultural hub of the city has an old-world feel that has attracted writers, musicians and artists since the Mark Twain era. This vibrant city now sees 10 million visitors a year. Its streets are lined with art galleries, antique stores, jazz clubs, nightclubs and restaurants. Its eclectic architectural style is a blend of Spanish, French, Creole and American influences. Its cobblestone streets are lined with brick buildings that feature charming walled courtyards, ornate cast iron balconies, and copious stoops and porches, all creating the perfect atmosphere for people-watching.
